or which the returns have recently been issued, perè were 133 anioides in Scotland-one in very 23,579 of the estimated population, 58 of hese deaths, were by hanging, 40 by cut-throat, 7 by poison, 12 by drowning, two by gun-shot, we by precipitation from a height, two in ways ot stated. The number of suicides in England a the same year was 1,392, or one in every 5,080 At the estimated population; so that to we sublides in Scotland there were three in Englacid in a like number of population. A singular incident occurred a few days back Berife in the bears' pit, which acquired so nciancholy a notoricty a few years back by the leath of the English Captain Lock. The cattle narket is close by, and a butcher was leading off a cow which he had just bought when the primal broke away, and, leaping the parapet. felt among the bears at the bottom. These latter were apparently stupefied at this inexpeeted visit, and, as the intruder presented her borns in a rather menting attitude, they thought it prudent to beat a retreat into their dens. As the entrance below was not large enough to allow the intruder to issue by that way, she was drawn up by means of ropes fixed round her body. There is in New York an association for their prevention of gambling. The society employs detectives to visit the gambling saloons, and procure evidence for the suppression of these establishments. It is the business of these agents also to ascertain the names and oc unations of those who frequent the gambling mome, and a list of the persons thus detected is sent periodically to the subscribers to the s niety, that they may know who are the persons wasting their money, or perhaps the money of their corployers, in gambling. Many large hours of business subscribe. In the month of August the society agents detected among the gamblers 68 clerks of mercantile houses, and in the previous six months reported 623 cases. It is stated that there are in New Yerk and Brooklyn 1017 policy and lottery offices, and 163 fare hanks, and that their net

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE Hongkong, Monday Evening. There has been a pretty fair native demand for Bengal Drug to-day, which the holders have readily met. Transactions have been done in Patna at $630 to $6321 eash, and $6321 to $635 on credit to the natives. Seldom has so favour. able an opportunity been offered to the "Bulls," se during the past and present months, and it is quite time that they should show their true colours, and bestir themselves a little more. What with the total loss of the steamer Reiver with about 1,600 chests Bengal Drug, and the very moderate supply that has come on, the market still shows signs of weakness. It appears that with all their flourish of trumpets, the Bulls are likely to collapse into a state of Coma. The following may be taken us the closing quotations —Pates $6311 to $6321 cash, $635 on credit to the natives, and $6323 on time; of the 11th sales to arrive at $6273 to $630. Benarea $625 cash, with more sellers than buyers. In Malwa there has also been a good enquiry from FOR SWATOW, AMOY, AND FOOCHOW Chinese quartors, and sales to some extent / HE Steamship have been made at $645 to $660, according to the description of the drug, the latter figure, it is said, was given for good old drug.

The Chinese have been enquiring to some extent for piece goods to day, but there is not much disposition apparent to do business Yarn has been in some demand, but prices are yet rather unsatisfactory looking at the latest quotations at bome. Sales reported embrace ,000 pieces White Shirtings at $2.50; 2,450 pieces, Sibs. T-Cloths at $2,70 to $2,90, 2,700 nieces, 7lbs. at $2.20 to 2.471, 500 Brocades at Capt. Miller, will leave for the above ports on $3.50,500 pieces English Drills, 30-yd., at $3.20, for about the 12th instant. 120 Lastings at $14.80, 240 pieces Spanish Stripes at 78 cents, 72 pieces Medium Cloth at 31 56, and 96 bales 16/24 Y urn at $125 to $1204; and 50 bales at $119. Raw Cotton continues to be taken to a fair extent, sales embrace 225 hales Bombay at $18.50 to $20.00, 200 bales Bengal at $18.25, 70 bales Shanghai at $22, and 250 Bales Ningpo at $22.20.
